Baypines District Day Apart
Theme: WOMEN OF FAITH
Saturday, April 21, 10 am to 12 noon
Loxley United Methodist Church

Dean Albritton has devoted her life to the ministry of Jesus Christ, serving him alongside her husband, Walter, a United Methodist pastor. She loves the Holy Scriptures and delights in sharing faith lessons learned as a homemaker, pastor's wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and disciple of Jesus.

She shares her faith with passion, warmth, wit and understanding. Out of the joy and pain of her own life she relates the promises of God to everyday life. Dean has shared some of her spiritual insights in a book of poetry and prose, The Yellow Butterfly, published and available from Amazon.

The mother of five sons, 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren, Dean has spent her life promoting mission work across the world. She has traveled extensively, visiting United Methodist mission work in 28 countries. She attended the World Methodist Council meeting in Brazil in 1996 and has ministered to pastors and their wives in Mexico and Zambia.

Currently Dean serves as a Sunday School teacher at Saint James United Methodist Church in Montgomery. She enjoys assisting in the ministry of prayer shawls for the sick, baby blankets for unwed mothers and making Raggedy Ann dolls for abused children.

Dean is devoted to the work of Mourning to Morning in Wetumpka, a ministry for women who have lost children.
