UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Spiritual Enrichment Retreat

Friday - Saturday - Sunday
October 20-22, 2017

Blue Lake Assembly

Our Retreat Leader:

Rev. Dr. Mary Ann Gantt

Mary Ann is a retired United Methodist elder who lives in a log cabin on family property north of Andalusia. A graduate of Straughn High School she then earned degrees at Judson College, Troy University, Emory University, and Columbia Theological Seminary.

After three years retirement from a career in education in Alabama and Georgia, she received her call to ministry and attended seminary at Candler School of Theology in Atlanta. She served Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church as Minister of Education and served appointments at Satsuma United Methodist Church and Pensacola First United Methodist Church.

She has two daughters, Katie Campbell and Sarah Mangham, and three grandsons, Carter and Ryan Campbell and Henry Mangham. Mary Ann is a member of Andalusia First United Methodist Church, Covington County Master Gardeners and the El Martes Garden Club. She loves to travel and recently returned from Cuba and San Francisco.

All God's Children Gotta
Have Faith

So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith
